

Auckland Airport Parking – Terms and conditions of entry

By entering Auckland Airport parking facilities you agree to pay the parking charges as displayed at the entrance to each car park and to abide by these terms and conditions. Prices are inclusive of GST.

The use of these parking facilities is at your own risk in every respect and you release Auckland International Airport Limited and its employees or contractors fully from any liability for loss or damage to your vehicle or any other possessions howsoever caused. While we take reasonable care to keep all car parks owned or operated by Auckland Airport safe, we cannot guarantee the security of your vehicle.

By using this car park you warrant that you are the owner or the authorised agent of the owner of the vehicle and agree to indemnify Auckland Airport and its employees and contractors against any damage caused to any other vehicle or the car park as a result of your use of the vehicle and the car park, including but not limited to damage caused by the leakage of oil or any other substance from your vehicle.

Use of all Auckland Airport parking facilities for commercial purposes is not permitted without the permission of Auckland Airport International Limited. You must not obstruct any persons or vehicles using the car park or park in any area marked “Reserved” or “No Parking”. Any car parked in a mobility bay must display a current mobility pass. Any car parked in a space marked “Hybrid and fuel efficient cars only” must be a hybrid vehicle or have an engine capacity of 1.6 litres or less.

In the event that you breach any of these terms and conditions Auckland International Airport Limited may, at its sole discretion:

- Enter the vehicle;
- move or remove and store a vehicle (at the owners own risk) ; or
- Apply a wheel clamp to your vehicle, and recover the costs of doing so from the owner. No vehicle will be released to the owner until all such costs, along with car parking fees accrued on an hourly basis up to and including the time of removal, are paid in full.

You agree that Auckland Airport has a contractual lien in respect of the vehicle and all goods in or attached to the vehicle for all fees due in respect of the vehicle under these terms and conditions. Auckland Airport may (at its discretion) exercise the lien in respect of any fees due and unpaid and may retain the vehicle and/or goods and serve written notice on the owner of the vehicle requiring immediate payment of the fees. If the fees have not been paid within 21 days of Auckland Airport serving written notice on the owner, sell the vehicle and /or the goods in the vehicle by auction or otherwise and the proceeds may be applied to or in satisfaction of the lien. If after deduction of all monies owing to Auckland Airport, including the expenses of sale, there is a surplus balance of sale proceeds, such proceeds shall be paid to the owner of the vehicle upon presentation of satisfactory proof of ownership.
